ABOUT ME

I am a Senior Quality Auditor/Analyst at Accenture, focusing on AI training and quality assurance, particularly in NLP-driven automation. I oversee high-impact AI initiatives for a major global technology client, ensuring data accuracy and scalability for AI systems. My responsibilities include leading training sessions for data labeling analysts, conducting quality spot checks, managing performance metrics, and driving continuous improvement. I also create BI dashboards to visualize performance trends and quality metrics, supporting data-driven decisions and enhancing reliability and efficiency in AI systems, while bridging human intelligence and automation.
